

Explanatory Notes: (guideline)

A brief description of each entity, including its role attributes and methods.

Explanation of relationships between entities and the overall business logic.

Business Logic Layer

The User class represents the user of hBnB. Depending on their purpose, user can be either only customer or customer/host

Role :
Customer = Search/View/Book properties

Host =
Search/View/Book/List properties

Key attributes:
is_host

Key method:
+ register_user()
+ validate_user()
+ update_user()

Explanation of relationship:
Place has usage(dependency) relationship with user since the Place class requires the User class to perform its functionality. Place cannot exist without user(host listing properties)

Review represents the rating given by those that have stayed at the Place.

Key attributes:
+ review: string

Method:
+ validate_review()
+ submit_review()

Relationship:
Bi-association with Place, cant have no ability to review a place.
0 to many instances Place has of Review.
Review has 1 instance of Place.
Dependent on User, cant commit reviews without user.
Review has 1 instance of User vice-versa.

User

+ first_name: string
+ last_name: string
+ email: string
+ password: string
+ is_host: boolean

+register_user()
+validate_user()
+update_user()

1

use

if host

1

1

0..*

Review

+ user_id: int
+ user_name: string
+ review: string
+ rating: int

+ validate_review()
+ submit_review()

e)
in the system and key how they contribute to

